

Cookie policy

The weCAN website (<https://wecan.net/>) uses cookies in order to keep the site operating as smoothly as possible, provide a better experience, track users' activities and show relevant offers.

Use of cookies on the website

All websites operating in the European Union must ask for users' permission to use and/or store cookies on their computer or other devices. We inform you about the cookies we use on our site and the purpose of their usage below.

What are cookies?

Cookies are files containing small pieces of information and are downloaded to any internet enabled device – such as your computer, smartphone or tablet – when visiting a website. They gather information, remember your preferences and thus make the website easier to use. Cookies themselves do not gather data stored on your computer or in your files. Please carefully read the following notice on how we collect information when you use our website.

Types of cookies according to the length of time they remain active:

Session cookies: These are temporary cookies activated during a browser session. A browser session starts when a user opens the browser window and finishes when they close the browser window. Once you close the browser, all session cookies are deleted.

Persistent cookies: These cookies remain on the user's device for a preset period of time specified within the cookie. They are reactivating each time the user visits the website that created the particular cookie.

Types of cookies depending on the entity that manages them:

Own cookies: Own cookies are those created by the website the user is visiting.

Third-party cookies: Third-party cookies are those sent to the user's device from a device or a domain not managed by the publisher but another entity.

Types of cookies according to their purpose

Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies are definitely necessary to operate the website and ensure access to our services.

Analytics and performance (statistical) cookies: These cookies allow us to count the number of users and obtain statistical measurements and analyses of the ways they use our website.

The cookies we use and their purpose

Strictly necessary cookies

Strictly necessary cookies: These cookies enable you to move around our website and are essential to make the website work correctly. Without these cookies, basic services could not be provided. They do not gather any type of your information that later can be used for marketing or tracking down your previous activity on the internet.

The purpose of strictly necessary cookies:

- Remembers the permission level set by the users

- Ensures the safe operation of forms available to the users
